TATINTL

Thank you for letting us borrow [REDACTED] for a few days during [REDACTED] recent absence on leave. He caught on to the essential procedures both in the office and at the Director's Morning Meeting in a relatively short time and was most helpful indeed.

With the performances I have seen by [REDACTED] I suspect that you may have been hoarding more than your fair share of talent during the past few years.

TATINTL

Thanks again for the loan of [REDACTED] and I hope we may impose upon you again sometime if he is interested and agreeable.
